Regulation Statement of Authority

Contents

1. General

1.1. Regulation

This Regulation Statement of Authority is a Regulation as defined in the Clearing Rule Book.

1.2. Definitions

Capitalised terms used in this Regulation shall have the meaning given thereto the Clearing Rule Book.

1.3. Effective date

This Regulation comes into force on 27 July 2026 and replaces any prior version of Regulation Statement of Authority.

2. Application of Statement of Authority

Clearing Members will be able to access a web based user interface (UI) to make clearing configuration changes on venues that are available for clearing via Cboe Clear Europe (the "Cboe Clear Portal").

Each Clearing Member wishing to clear Trades for itself shall complete, execute and submit electronically to Cboe Clear, via the Cboe Clear Portal, or by email the details contained within the relevant Statement(s) of Authority with the information required by Cboe Clear.

Each General Clearing Member wishing to clear Trades for a Trading Participant shall for each Trading Participant:

a) enter into one or more clearing agreements, as appropriate, with such Trading Participant; and
b) complete, execute and submit to Cboe Clear the relevant Statements of Authority for such Trading Participant as published on Cboe Clear's website; and
c) represent and warrant whether or not such Trading Participant is or is not a US Person.

Following acceptance of by Cboe Clear of a Statement of Authority submitted via the Cboe Clear Portal or by email, Cboe Clear will confirm the acceptance of the relevant Trading Participant to the Clearing Member and clear Trades submitted by such Trading Participant pursuant to the Clearing Rules. Cboe Clear may share the electronic or executed Statement of Authorities submitted to Cboe Clear via the Cboe Clear Portal or by email with the relevant Exchanges.

The authority granted by the Clearing Member in a Statement of Authority submitted to Cboe Clear via the Cboe Clear Portal or by email is limited to Trades concluded with the Trading BIC as mentioned under "BIC of Trading Participant" in the Statement of Authority. The authority granted by the Clearing Member in a Statement of Authority may be suspended or terminated with immediate effect by the Clearing Member by notice to Cboe Clear, the relevant Exchange and the Trading Participant.

The ability of Clearing Members to make use of the electronic submission of Statement(s) of Authority via the Cboe Clear Portal is subject to terms and conditions set out in the Approved Communications Method, as amended from time to time and published on the Cboe Clear website.

Specific provisions apply to the application of a Statement of Authority in respect of London Stock Exchange, Swiss Exchange and Deutsche Börse as set out in Section 4 hereof.

3. Suspension and termination of Statement of Authority

As soon as the Clearing Member suspends or terminates any Statement of Authority, the Clearing Member will immediately give notice of such suspension or termination to Cboe Clear and the relevant Exchange, if any using the form "Termination Statement of Authority" as published on Cboe Clear's website for that purpose. Clearing Members will also be able to suspend or terminate any Statement of Authority via the Cboe Clear Portal and through the current process using email.

Once Cboe Clear has received a notification from an Exchange that such Exchange has taken appropriate measures in its systems to procure that such Trading Participant can no longer conclude Trades on that Exchange in the name of the Clearing Member, Cboe Clear will confirm to the Clearing Member that the Statement of Authority is suspended or terminated, as the case may be, and will refuse to clear and settle any Trades concluded by that Trading Participant on behalf of the Clearing Member. Until the time of such confirmation the relevant Statement of Authority will remain in full force and effect as between Cboe Clear and the Clearing Member.

Specific provisions apply to the suspension and termination of a Statement of Authority in respect of London Stock Exchange, Swiss Exchange and Deutsche Börse as set out in Section 4 of this Regulation.

4. Application, suspension and termination of Statement of Authority for London Stock Exchange, SIX Swiss Exchange and Deutsche Börse

For the application, withdrawal or suspension of a Statement of Authority in respect of the London Stock Exchange (LSE) using the form "LSE Cboe Clear SETS Static Data Form & Statement of Authority", the Clearing Member shall notify the LSE in accordance with the LSE rules in order for the application, withdrawal or suspension to become effective. Cboe Clear will receive a notification from LSE following the notification by the Clearing Member to LSE.

For the application, withdrawal or suspension of a Statement of Authority in respect of the SIX Swiss Exchange using the form "SIX Swiss Exchange Clearing and Settlement Standing Instructions (CSSI) Notification Form and Statement of Authority", the Clearing Member shall notify the SIX Swiss Exchange in accordance with the SIX Swiss Exchange rules in order for the application, withdrawal or suspension to become effective. Cboe Clear will receive a notification from the SIX Swiss Exchange following the notification by the Clearing Member to the SIX Swiss Exchange.

For the application, withdrawal or suspension of a Statement of Authority in respect of Deutsche Börse, the Clearing Member shall notify (or shall procure that its Trading Participant notifies) Deutsche Börse using the form “Application for Set up of Clearing Relation at FWB with a Preferred CCP” in accordance with the Deutsche Börse rules. Concurrently, the Clearing Member shall also send a Statement of Authority to Cboe Clear, or suspend or terminate it, as the case may be, in accordance with Sections 2 and 3 above, respectively. The Statement of Authority, or suspension or termination, as the case may be, becomes effective upon Cboe Clear receiving a notification from Deutsche Börse and Cboe Clear shall inform the Clearing Member accordingly of the receipt of such notification from Deutsche Börse.
